SOCIAL CORNER.

to be much of a Yankee along this line.
It must be fine to belong to a Social Corner club, I hope there will be one formed near here. I should like to belong. Do the members of The Corner always wear a yellow ribbon?
If the Sisters who are inquiring for games to be used at church socials will write me, I will send her a list of interesting games.
I think it too long to plague the Editor with, unless others would like to.

Married and Happy: I like your name, it expresses so much. So many are married and not happy.

Crimson Rambler: If you give out of your life as much beauty and pleasure as the beautiful flower you take your name from you surely are shining in your little corner.

Merry Farmer Boy: You surely must be a welcome visitor wherever you go, for a merry heart doth good like medicine.

Jan: Your letter sent to the anniversary contained just what I needed. I will try harder to brighten The Corner where I am.

Ready: If you are what your name proclaims you to be you are one of the most valuable of the Sisters. To be always "ready" is to be a true soldier.

If I am given a place in The Corner I will come again.

Best wishes to all.

EASTER WISHES FROM KEZIAH DOOLITTLE.

Dear Editor and Social Corner Sisters:—May you one and all have a bright and happy Easter.

Country Maiden: I certainly have, this past week needed some of the Doctor's tablets very much.

Heimlich: Good! I have often wondered why some of the Sisters didn't write more about that subject.

KEZIAH DOOLITTLE.

HOW TO MAKE THUNDER CAKE.

Dear Editor and Social Corner Readers:—Well I think I am just waking up after all winter, so I have not been writing for a long time, but have thought a lot about you all.

I read every bit of The Corner Saturday as soon as it comes, and then Monday, after my washing is down and all cleaned up, I go at it again for fear I missed some of it, and I was so interested in it I almost forgot Hubby's supper. That would have been terrible. If I do that very often I shall have to have the Doctor give me some wake-up drops.

Well, Oslia Lily here is one of those recipes that you have asked for so many times:

Thunder Cake—Two squares of chocolate, one-half cup of milk, yolk of one egg, mix this and set on the stove to thicken; meanwhile mix one cup of sugar, one-half cup of butter, one-half of milk, a pinch of salt, one and three-quarters cups of flour, one teaspoon of vanilla, combine mixture and add one teaspoon soda dissolved in one tablespoon of hot water.

Hope you will like this.

Best wishes.

ECHOES FROM THE LODGE ROOM

Owls Have Dispensation to Reopen Charter—Virginia Dare

Council Had Social Evening—Daughters of Revolution

Oppose Using Washington and Lincoln Portraits For Advertising Purposes.

DAUGHTERS OF AMERICAN REVOLUTION.

With a great amount of important business accomplished, the twenty-second state business meeting of the Connecticut Daughters of the American Revolution closed at 5 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, after a session of two days, held at the First Congregational church of West Hartford, by invitation of Sarah Whitman Hooker chapter, during which officers had been elected and important changes made in the standing rules, hence to be known as by-laws.

Mrs. Buel read the reports of the matters relating to the national society, to be taken up at the continental congress at Washington, D. C., beginning April 19, were discussed, the printed complaint of the historian general on the treatment of her office being read. It was decided to let Mrs. John Laidlaw Buel, state regent, act on it as she deemed best.

Mrs. Buel read the reports of the chapters which had been put over from Tuesday as unfinished business. The report of the chapter of the Red Cross and Belgian relief, and Judea chapter of Washington had been discussed, and the chapter of the national emblem, for the purpose of promoting the Boy Scout movement. Ruth Wyllys chapter of Hartford reported a committee compiling a resolution opposing the use of portraits of Washington and Lincoln for commercial and advertising purposes was presented by Mrs. Catharine of Ruth Hartford chapter, which was received with endorsement of the meeting, as did a resolution regarding the employment of a vocational secretary for girls, by the Consumers' league of Connecticut.

A request for the Connecticut D. A. R. to financially assist in copying town records in connection with other patriotic societies, was tabled, although sympathy with its object was expressed.

A rising vote of thanks was given to Sarah Whitman Hooker, and the meeting adjourned after singing "America." The music for the second day session was given by Mrs. Harriet Crane, Pittsford, and Mrs. Edna Litchfield, Meriden. An excellent luncheon was again served by the ladies of the chapter.

By invitation of Mary Sullivan chapter, the next meeting of the Connecticut society, that of the chapter regent, will be held in Bridgeport, while the state conference of regents and delegates to the continental congress in March, will take place in Derby, by invitation of Sarah Riggs Humphreys chapter.

The D. A. R. state regents' council is now as follows: State regent, Mrs. John Laidlaw Buel, Litchfield; state vice regent, Mrs. Charles H. Buel, Southington; recording secretary, Mrs. Starr C. Barnum, Danbury; corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. E. Edgerton, Meriden; consulting registrar, Miss Katherine Hamilton, Waterbury; treasurer of utility fund, Mrs. Louis K. Curtis, Southington; counselors for one year, Mrs. Frances T. Maxwell, Rockville, Mrs. George P. McLean, Windham, Mrs. L. K. Shipman, New London; counselors for two years, Miss Anna M. Olmsted, East Hartford, Mrs. Charles H. Buel, Bridgeport, Mrs. Merritt Merwin, Milford.

OWLS.

Norwich nest No. 1395 has received a dispensation from the supreme lodge to reopen their charter for a period of three months, dating from April 1. The nest is planning for a smoker on the evening of April 6. At the business meeting Tuesday evening the entertainment committee reported that the recent whist was very successful.

In response to a request from the lodge William R. Balcom has copied the entire membership list, numbering about 300 names, onto a cardboard 2x3 feet, and the list has been posted in a conspicuous place in the lodge rooms for the convenience of all who wish to consult it.

DAUGHTERS OF LIBERTY.

Virginia Dare council, No. 25, held its meeting in the Shannon building, Friday evening, March 26, which time two proposals for membership were received. Following the business session the entertainment committee, Sisters Mary and Bailey served refreshments. Deputy Sister N. A. Bacon was present and was heard in very interesting remarks. The entertainment committee are preparing for the next meeting night, April 23, when it is expected the attendance will be large.

ODD FELLOWS.

The Triple Link corporation conducted another successful whist in Odd Fellows' hall on Friday evening, the prizes being awarded as follows: Ladies—First, Mrs. J. J. Parsons; second, Miss Frances Kelly; 28; consolation, Mrs. Lawrence Jewett. Gentlemen—First, Mrs. J. McCafferty; second, W. D. Thatcher; 44; consolation, Joseph Clegg.

W. D. Thatcher and Charles Stamm were tied for second place, each having a score of 44, and Mr. Thatcher took the prize on the cut.

Only routine business was transacted at the business session of Unocal lodge No. 11 on Monday night. The attendance was of good sized proportions.

Matters of a routine nature occupied the attention of the members of Shetucket lodge No. 27, at their business meeting in Odd Fellows' hall on Thursday evening.

Canton Oneco No. 2 held their business meeting in Odd Fellows hall Thursday evening with a good sized attendance.

MOOSE.

It is expected that by next Friday the new addition to the process of construction in the Moose home on Laurel Hill avenue will be ready for use. All the room partitions on the second floor

BOLTON

Lebanon Dog Found by Local Man—Forest Fires.

A Willimantic club gave a three-act comedy entitled The Time of His Life in the Andover Town hall Thursday evening, April 1st. There were nine characters in the play.

William H. Loomis has a coach dog that he is keeping while he is away from his owner. Mr. Loomis is unable to find the owner. The dog has a Lebanon 1914 tag, No. 27670, and the collar bears the name B. Clark. On telephoning to Lebanon Mr. Loomis was informed that B. Clark was a shepherd dog, but he lost none.

Pleasant Entertainment.

The entertainment given in the Bolton hall last evening by Charles E. Bloomer of Philadelphia was well liked by the audience. Mr. Bloomer gave an entertainment in the vestry of the Quarrville Methodist church Tuesday evening, and another in Grange hall, Coventry, later in the week.

Dreadful forest fires which were first seen from Bolton Center Sunday night, were reported by a fireman from the southwest of Birch Mountain started again Monday afternoon, and appeared to cover several miles, and could be seen plainly from the town after midnight. In the daytime the smoke poured up in thick clouds, and after dark in the night the flames were plainly visible. The fires were thought to be in Glastonbury.
